

The AusIMM Metallurgical Society exists to meet the professional needs of members whose field of interest and profession is metallurgy - predominantly minerals processing, hydrometallurgy and pyrometallurgy.

Our values:

- Leadership
- Professionalism
- Respect

2020 targets:

- Effective engagement of the MetSoc membership
- Interaction with all metallurgical communities
- Diverse and valued member services

Priority	Objective
1. Engagement and Services	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Effective mechanisms for member communication and engagement.</li> <li>• Expanded, accessible and valued member services.</li> <li>• Establish partnerships with branches, chapters and external metallurgical communities.</li> </ul>
2. Professional Development	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Increase member engagement and retention.</li> <li>• Promote and facilitate professional development.</li> <li>• Develop industry pathways and promote careers in metallurgy.</li> </ul>
3. Governance	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Support the development of AusIMM policy and guidelines.</li> <li>• Ensure the sustainability of the society.</li> <li>• Manage compliance with AusIMM Policy.</li> </ul>